After placing a binding order, cancellation or reduction of the number of guests can take place as follows:

Up to 30 calendar days before the event: Cancellation/reduction can freely be made.

If specified beverages have been ordered, the binding order also includes these. If no specified beverages have been ordered at the time of cancellation/reduction, the menu order is considered with acceptance of the beverage selection on the restaurant's website. (If no specified beverages have been ordered at the time of cancellation/reduction, nothing will be charged for beverages.)

The restaurant's closing hours according to the restaurant's website are valid, unless an earlier or later ending time has been agreed for the event prior to or at the same time as the binding order.
